

CHAPTER 9

Food Service

9.1

SCOPE

The Food Code is a model for safeguarding public health and ensuring food is unadulterated and honestly presented when offered to the consumer. The model Food Code provisions are consistent with, and where appropriate incorporate, federal performance standards in effect define public food safety expectations for product.

9.2

ADOPTION

The newest version of the Food Code is adopted as an ordinance and has been delegated as the code the Norton Board of Health will be following to insure all FDA, CDC HHS and USDA codes are being met.

9.3

FEE

A fee for the license(s) shall be as established in the fee schedule.

9.4

LICENSES

Licenses are not transferable.