Horace Mello gave an update on his first meeting of the newly elected State Committee members – 79 out of 80 attended. He mentioned the newly elected officers. He also mentioned that Walpole Town Committee is up and running and re-organized.

C.J. McMahon is running as a candidate for the Norton School Committee. He has signs with him to distribute in town. There are three people running and two open seats. The election to vote is on Tuesday, April 24. He would like to review how the school budget is being spent. At the present time there are no break downs per line items. Supplies are limited and buildings are crumbling. Volunteers are needed to stand out on Saturday or Sunday for a few hours on April 21 and 22, and also on Monday, April 23 from 4-6pm.

OLD BUSINESS

Chairman Bill Lippincott reminded everyone that all candidates are welcomed to attend our regular meetings the third Thursday of each month. We would like all candidates to come to the meeting and state their views so we can make sure we are all well informed, have all the facts, and encourage support for them.

Chairman Bill Lippincott asked if someone would like to organize the fund raiser for the Seniors who are graduation party at the YMCA. No one volunteered. Vice Chairman Charles Campbell and Sargent of Arms Mike Mello are going to look into standing out one Saturday at Walgreens or CVS.

Chairman Bill Lippincott asked for someone to organize the Summer BQ and Pam Kilibaba volunteered. This will be held on Saturday, August 11, with a rain date of Sunday, August 12.

Chairman Bill Lippincott will look into a Candidates' Night that would include Foxboro, Mansfield, and Norton.

NEW BUSINESS

Pam Kilibaba wondered how the bylaws read concerning election of officers for just one year. The executive committee will look at the rules and report back at the next meeting. Richard Leitch made a motion and Pam Kilibaba seconded that the executive committee look at the by-laws on the elections of officers.

David Steinoff is a congressional candidate running for Congress came into our meeting. He started his campaign on March 7th. He spoke on his views of several items. He is a Republican from the 4th District. He is a dentist. He said he was a fiscal conservative.

He would like to bring back manufacturing. He also would like to see lower student loans. There are about 12-25 million illegal immigrants in this country using state aid and not contributing to our country. We need to have some form of registration to track them.

We need to secure our borders. He is pro-life.

Ray Issler reminded everyone that April 15, Sunday from 2-4PM the Tea Party was holding a rally.

Since the lights were being turned out in the other part of the building, the meeting was adjourned.

The next meeting will be held on Thursday, May 17, 2012.
