Requests for Approval

Kelly reported out to members on requests approved at EB meeting:

Payment for Westport's cell phone service was approved for Mathew Armendo, Health Director.

Payment for a second phone line was approved with the following stipulation: If the Westport BOH purchases a cell phone to be used by the active BOH Chair and is on the 24/7 list, the Coalition will pay for the service only, in accordance with maximum quarterly amount paid for by the grant. If the Chairperson rotates, the phone and service go to the next Chair.

LSAC

Kelly reported that if standing orders are presently being signed by Dr. Al De Maria, they are no longer viable, as Dr. De Maria retired. Some of you may work with doctors and they may be able to issue standing orders.

Speaker- Marilyn Edge on State Tobacco Laws

Deni Phaneuf Planner/Coordinator

Deni gave an overview of Q1 deliverables. The planners submitted the Q1 24/7 contact list, and an updated Q1 work plan to the Regional Coordinator. Many SNS operational drills are in progress. Deni is discussing and planning an Emerging Infectious Disease Workshop for Bristol.

Ali Novak- Planner

No additions.

Elaine LaCoursiere- MAHB (Unable to attend)

Lisa Crowner-DPH

Lisa discussed the results of the last State drill and reiterated the need to improve. She gave a refresher course on WebEOC during the Coalition meeting. There were many new members. She provided technical assistance to all members present, giving handouts on the HHAN alerts, text messaging quick reference guide and WebEOC quick reference guide.

Lisa talked about the importance of National Preparedness month and the Mass Clearinghouse.

Brian Gallant-HMCC

Brian gave an update on HMCC meetings, activities, trainings and exercises. The next stakeholders meeting will take place on Friday November 2, 2018 from 9-11 a.m. at the Middleboro Town Hall. He encouraged all to attend.
