A. Arrowhead Concerns

No one from Arrowhead attended the meeting. Sandy will contact them and try to schedule a meeting to hear their concerns before the Public Meeting.

B. Choosing the trail name

The committee went through the suggestions given through Facebook and email (see document attached). Our top choice was "Old Colony Rail Trail" but after a quick google search, we found out that a section of the Cape Cod Rail Trail has that name.

The committee decided to do a bit more research before making our final decision (especially since Matt from Beta had told us we have until December before they need a name). We like the idea of tying the name to something in one of the following categories (1) Native American (2) a connection with the old railway (3) nature (specifically something that is possibly unique to this area). Kathy Ebert-Zawasky will ask LPS and the Historical Society if they have any suggestions.
