The Norton Public Library will be closed between April 26 and June 30, so it is not available to host the Art Show. Council members agreed to explore the possibility of holding the Art Show in the gym or cafeteria of one of the Norton public schools.

Janet Linehan volunteered to contact the school superintendent's office determine the best date for the show, discuss location options, arrange a date and location for students to drop off their entries, and get contact information for the art teachers.

Susan Boylan volunteered to draft an email to the art teachers to share with them the date and location of the show and request that they encourage their students to participate.

Council members agree that there would not be a theme for this year's art show.

Laurie Pleshar volunteered to create a flyer for the Art Show and drop them off at all Norton elementary schools.

Cary Gouldin volunteered to put together gift bags of art supplies to be awarded to one entrant from each grade level through a random drawing.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:50 pm.
