This is to request to see if the Town will vote to amend the Town of Norton's General Code by inserting the following, or take any other action relative thereto:

Home Owners Privacy

Home owners have the right to privacy under Massachusetts nuisance laws as well as the right to quiet enjoyment on their property without interference from others.

Cameras will not be permitted to be installed above privacy fences and over a homeowner's property line from any side of the property to video tape or take pictures with the intent to harass, annoy or threaten the person or property without the written consent of the homeowner.

This would apply to any single and multi-family home's.

Excluded from this is any law enforcement to conduct their lawful responsibilities.
