Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day Sunday, December 7, 1941
 "A Day Which Will Live in Infamy" President F. D. Roosevelt.
 The Attack on Pearl Harbor lasted almost 2 hours resulting in the death of more than 2,400 Americans including civilians.
 This was the start of the United States involvement in WWII.

Reminder: The VA encourages you to see your PCP once a year and remember you do not have to give up your private PCP, you get to keep both. If are not enrolled at the VA call the Veterans Office to see if you are eligible.
