Town of Norton
Zoning Board of Appeals
Minutes of Meeting Held on May 11, 2022

The May 11, 2022 meeting of the Zoning Board of Appeals was held in person at the Norton Media Center and remotely via the ZOOM platform, provided for interested parties and members of the public as noticed.

The meeting was called to order at 7:00 p.m. by Mr. Jim Tenore. Members participating were Mr. David Wrenn. Also, in attendance is Building Commissioner Nicholas Iafrate and Administrative Assistant Bryan Carmichael.

The meeting was recorded and made available to the public on the Norton Media Center YouTube page.

General Business

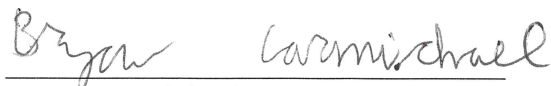

Due to an unexpected medical emergency Mr. Tom Noel, the Zoning Board chair is not able to attend the meeting. Mr. David Wrenn is present remotely using Zoom. Mr. Tenore tentatively moves all the applicants to the May 25, 2022 depending on the Norton Media Center's availability. If that cannot happen then all matters will be moved to the June 8, 2022 meeting. Mr. Tenore asks if there are any questions from the public. There are none.

Adjournment

Mr. Tenore adjourns the Public Hearing for May 25, 2022 at 7:02 pm due to a lack of quorum.

Minutes contemporaneously typed by: Bryan Carmichael, Administrative Secretary for the Planning and Zoning Board of Appeals.
